

Juliana Taimoorazy Biography

Juliana Taimoorazy is the Founder and President of the Iraqi Christian Relief Council, a non-profit organization in the U.S. that raises awareness about the persecuted church in Iraq and has helped thousands of displaced Assyrian Christian families (also known as Chaldean and Syriac) throughout Iraq, Lebanon, Syria and Jordan with food, shelter, and medicine. Her organization also has helped the Assyrians who have arrived in the United States as refugees. For the last 7 years, Taimoorazy has traveled throughout the US and Israel educating the public about the plight of her people throughout the Middle East.

Through her activism and media appearances on FoxNews, NewsMax, One American News and several Christian television and radio programs, Taimoorazy has tirelessly promoted the cause of the Assyrian Christians throughout the world. She is a Fellow at the Philos Project, an organization, which promotes positive Christian engagement in the Middle East. Recently, she became the Executive Producer for Sing a Little Louder, a short docudrama Inspired by the true story of an elderly man who in his youth witnessed the horrors of the Jewish Holocaust from the pews of his Church. The movie provides a stunning message for the twenty-first century and a revelation of another genocide that exists today, the Assyrian Christian genocide in the Middle East.

Taimoorazy was smuggled into Switzerland in 1989 due to religious persecution in her native 'Iran'. After spending seven days in a monastery in Zurich, she was once again smuggled into Germany where she sought religious asylum. After spending one year in Germany, she came to America as a refugee in December of 1990. As an Assyrian Christian living in Iran, Taimoorazy learned to be multi-lingual at a young age and is fluent in English, Farsi, and Assyrian. She obtained her Master's degree in the year 2000 and since she has helped several are refugee women gain higher education and rebuild their lives in the States, as she was once given the opportunity to rebuild her life in America, the place she now calls home.

OUR MISSION n

Iraqi Christian Relief Council exists to support, protect, and defend persecuted Assyrians Christians in Iraq and other countries in the Middle East by providing emergency humanitarian aid, prayer support, and advocacy.

We also have the privilege of educating the world of the religious and ethnic cleansing being inflicted on Christians in Iraq. This is our passion and calling.

OUR FOUNDING HISTORY **

Most Assyrians in Iraq have sadly become accustomed to living under violence, persecution, and religious threat. In 2006 we watched attacks on the church in Baghdad our hearts filled with sorrow for our fellow Assyrian Christians. This was the day when we decided to be a voice for Christians in Iraq.

After much prayer and encouragement, in 2007 Iraqi Christian Relief Council started in response. Our team committed to take the responsibility of spreading the word about the brutal treatment of the Assyrian Christians in Iraq from that day forward. We became a 501(c)(3) organization registered in the state of Illinois in 2009.

Today our work consists of humanitarian aid, advocacy, prayer support, and education. We travel throughout the U.S. on behalf of the indigenous people of Iraq, the Assyrians also known as Chaldeans and Syriacs.

Despite the cruel ISIS attacks in 2014, we've witnessed the Assyrian Christians of Iraq remain steadfast in their faith in the Lord. We are continually moved by the perseverance of this ancient Christian community. Our work is funded through the generosity of individuals, churches, foundations, and businesses.

OUR FOUNDER »

Juliana Taimoorazy is the Founder and President of the Iraqi Christian Relief Council. Her own unique story as a refugee has made her a strong leader and an unshakable voice for Christians in Iraq today.

As a young woman in 1989, Taimoorazy was smuggled into Switzerland due to religious persecution in her native 'Iran'. After spending seven days in a Zurich monastery, she was again into Germany to seek religious asylum. After spending one year in Germany, in December of 1990 she came to America as a refugee.

In 2000, she obtained her Master's degree from Northeastern Illinois University. As a passionate leader who knows firsthand how education can rebuild lives in America, she has generously helped several refugee women through education to rebuild their lives.

In 2006, Juliana made a commitment to be a greater voice and advocate for the persecuted church in Iraq and refugees who have resettled in the United States. She founded Iraqi Christian Relief Council in 2007 which has helped thousands of displaced Christians throughout Iraq with food, shelter, and medicine. Today, through her activism and media appearances on FoxNews, NewsMax, and several Christian radio programs, Taimoorazy has tirelessly promoted the cause of the Assyrian Christians throughout the world.

From her time as an Assyrian Christian living in Iran, Taimoorazy is fluent in English, Italian, Farsi, and Assyrian.

TAKE ACTION,,

- > Learn about the issues through our press and media appearances at IraqiChristianRelief.org/Media
- > We are in need of financial support – both small and large gifts. Please donate today! IraqiChristianRelief.org
- > Hold a fund-raiser or take an offering for one of our urgent humanitarian causes. IraqiChristianRelief.org/Cause

Our Founder

Juliana Taimoorazy is the Founder and President of the Iraqi Christian Relief Council. Her own unique story as a refugee has made her a strong leader and an unshakable voice for Christians in Iraq today.

As a young woman in 1989, Taimoorazy was smuggled into Switzerland due to religious persecution in her native 'Iran'. After spending seven days in a monastery in Zurich, she was once again smuggled into Germany where she sought religious asylum. After spending one year in Germany, in December of 1990 she came to America as a refugee.

In 2000, she obtained her Master's degree from Northeastern Illinois University. As a passionate leader who knows firsthand how education can rebuild lives in America, she has generously helped several refugee women through education to rebuild their lives.

In 2006, Juliana made a commitment to be a greater voice and advocate for the persecuted church in Iraq and refugees who have resettled in the United States. She founded Iraqi Christian Relief Council in 2007 which has helped thousands of displaced Christians throughout Iraq with food, shelter, and medicine. Today, through her activism and media appearances on FoxNews, NewsMax, and several Christian radio programs, Taimoorazy has tirelessly promoted the cause of the Assyrian Christians throughout the world.

From her time as an Assyrian Christian living in Iran, Taimoorazy learned to be multi-lingual at a young age and is fluent in English, Italian, Farsi, and Assyrian.

Below is a partial list of Iraqi Christian Relief Council's press and media appearances. We've been honored to speak throughout the globe through media to create awareness and stir American's hearts to action. Take a moment to learn more about our organization:

Television Appearances

FOX NEWS, On The Record with Greta Van Susteren

Watch Now

NewsmaxTV :: September 2014

Watch Now

FOX NEWS, The Sean Hannity Show :: September 2014

Watch Now

NewsmaxTV :: August 2014

Watch Now

FOX NEWS, America's News HQ

Watch Now

Christian Broadcasting Network TV

Watch Now

Juliana Taimoorazy

President of the Iraqi Christian Relief Council

Will Speak At

Starkdale Church

Sunday April 12th @ 6:00

